THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART
CLEVELAND 6. OHIO
TELEPHONE: GARFIELD 1-7340

20 Jan. '52

FOR RELEASE

Marie Kirkwood
In Charge of Publicity

The return of a Cleveland musician who has made good, will be marked by The Fortnightly Musical Club of Cleveland, who will present Frederick Griesinger, now of The Peabody Conservatory of Boston, in a piano recital at The Cleveland Museum of Art, Wednesday, January 23, 8.15 p.m. He is the son of Doctor and Mrs. E.F. Griesinger of our town. He was educated at Western Reserve, studied piano with Arthur Loesser and the late Severin Eisenberger and redently played in New York's Town Hall series.

The Museum will revive the film "The Black Pirate" with Douglas Fairbanks,Sr. Friday, January 25 at 2 and 8 p.m. Another old-timer will be David Harum with Will Rogers, Sunday, January 27 at 3.00 p.m.